

Shih Hsin University

Q & A for exchange students

- How to apply the exchange student program ?

First, you need to send the application form to your home school. Then, after the evaluation through your home school, we will receive the list of nomination. Also, the host institute (Shih Hsin University) will evaluate the candidates and finalize the yearly exchange students or those students for that semester.

- How to find the information ?

You might refer to the guideline for international exchange student from the website of SHU (<http://eng.web.shu.edu.tw/exchange-program>), or you can access the information from Office of International Affairs dealing with the international student affairs in your home school.

- What is the tuition will charge ?

The tuition fee and other miscellaneous fee depend on the agreement of exchange program between SHU and your home school.

- How and when do we know the list of admission ?

We will send the acceptance letter to your home school.

- How long can the exchange student study in SHU ?

You can apply the exchange program for one semester (fall or spring semester) or one academic year.